Sodexo Thailand organizes “STOP Hunger” CSR event for the 5th consecutive year

Sodexo Thailand, local unit of the global leader in integrated facilities management services that improve the quality of life, recently organized ‘STOP Hunger 2015’, an annual CSR event to fight against hunger and malnutrition. The event was held at Wat Thung Hiang School in Phanat Nikhom district, Chonburi province, an education facility providing learning opportunities for less fortunate children.

For the 5th consecutive year, a team of more than 200 volunteer staff led by Mr. Arnaud Bialecki, Country Manager of Sodexo Thailand, took pride in giving back to the community in a meaningful way. The event featured lunch serving and renovation of the school building and nursing room. In addition, 100,000 baht cash and needed supplies were contributed to the school to further support the needy children.
